
Professional Accountant Public Practice, Calgary

Working collaboratively with the Managing Director, in a growing public practice this professional accountant will provide audit and advisory services to a broad variety of client organizations. This role will supervise a team of technical accounting resources to ensure full compliance in matters of audit, financial reporting and tax compliance.

- ◆ Accountable for all elements of client audits including planning, risk assessment, working papers, notes and recommendations;
- ◆ Completing the federal, provincial and/or state tax filings, including personal tax filings for company owners and related individuals;
- ◆ Support company management with counsel and assistance for improving the effectiveness & efficiency of processes and controls within their organizations;
- ◆ Identify and promote the use of best practices within client organizations introducing longer term tax and invest strategy and relevant financial constructs to maximize their profitability and long term financial goals;
- ◆ Communicating with and providing information to compliance authorities and other government agencies/auditors as required;
- ◆ Ensures the credibility of the external audit function by performing work in accordance with GAAP accounting standards, tax regulations and related legislation including Code of Ethics;
- ◆ Maintain effective working relations with clients to ensure their business needs are addressed in a timely and effective manner;
- ◆ Maintain a high level of confidentiality and exercise sound judgment.

EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

An undergraduate degree in Commerce, Accounting or a related discipline combined with a CA, CMA, CGA or CPA designation is required combined with a minimum of two to four years audit experience in a complex accounting environment, preferably providing services to complex organizations.

Contact: Ora A. Zabloski, Managing Director
AMKOR Enterprises Ltd.
Suite 882, 234-5149 Country Hills Blvd
Calgary, Alberta T3A 5K8
Telephone: (403) 668-0139 or ora@amkorgroup.com